

Make Tracks To The Collie Health Foundation Dinner and Auction

Thursday, March 29, 2007
Ringside at the Cabarrus Arena

The Dinner Buffet menu sounds great!

For just $20 you get:

Spinach Salad with Mandarin Oranges, Sliced Strawberries & Toasted Walnuts,
Three cheese Scalloped Potatoes, Oriental Stir Fry, Stuffed Pork Chops, Chicken Cordon Bleu, Chocolate Mousse
(There will also be a cash Bar.)

You don't want to miss this, so be sure to get your dinner reservations to Robette Johns

6976 Coyote Trail, Oak Hills, CA 92344

rowbarcollies@aol.com NO LATER THAN March 16, 2007 to get the $20 rate. Late reservations (after the deadline or at the National) will be $30. (Fees are set by the Cabarrus Arena & Events Center Catering Service, so we can't make exceptions!)

Our guest speaker will be Dr. Karen Munana, an Associate Professor of Neurology at NC State University College of Veterinary Medicine and a Diplomate, American College of Veterinary Internal Medicine in Neurology. Dr. Munana's research project is a pilot study of genetic clues in canine epilepsy in herding breeds that she hopes can be expanded to applications for other breeds and humans alike!

She and an assistant will be available at CCA on Thursday & Friday, hoping to solicit additional candidates for their study. MDR-1 testing will be free of charge for Collies qualifying for this valuable research.

For more information on Dr. Munana's work go to www.ncsu.edu/news/press_releases/06_05/097.htm

And, of course, you don't want to miss the AUCTIONS!! According to Laura LaBounty, there will be some very special items for the evening auction including:
