Presents
“A Quest for Quality” by Tom Coen

Date: Saturday, June 30, 2007

Time: 9:00am—5:00 pm
Check-in beginning at 8:30 am

Location: St Aidens Activity Center @
St. Aidan's Parish, 17500 Farmington Road, Livonia, MI 48152

Cost: $65 per person which includes a full lunch with hot entrée, salad, vegetables, beverages and a selection of desserts.

Seminar Description:

THIS 3 PART SEMINAR WILL GIVE PARTICIPANTS A CLOSER LOOK AT THE COLLIE STANDARD, AND INCLUDES THE FOLLOWING:

1) A VIEWING OF THE DVD USED FOR THE JUDGES EDUCATION AT OUR NATIONAL SPECIALTY SHOW.

2) THE COLLIE STANDARD - THE BLUEPRINT OF THE BREED- This portion of the seminar will include a study of the virtues that are important to correct Collie type and outstanding quality.

3) BREEDER JUDGEMENT - THE SOURCE OF OUTSTANDING COLLIES- An in-depth discussion including the methods that are employed by successful breeders to achieve the quality that shines in the toughest competition.

IN ADDITION, there will be a PANEL of breeders/exhibitors that will follow this presentation with a “round table discussion” of the topics presented.

Your questions will help enrich the seminar content and further the journey of the entire group in the pursuit of Collie excellence.

*****Be sure to attend the Virtues Match held the following day, which is a continuation of this seminar!!*******
